

Troopers Seek Public's Assistance in Identifying Burglary Suspects

Wilmington (19807) – Detectives are asking for the public's assistance in identifying two suspects who are wanted in connection with the attempted burglary of a Greenville area gun dealer.

The incident occurred at approximately 2:06 a.m., Wednesday, January 17, 2018, at Artemis Outfitters, located at 4201 Kennett Pike, Wilmington. Two suspects attempted to make forcible entry in to the store by breaking the glass entrance doors, but were unable to do so. After the unsuccessful attempt, the suspects fled southbound on Kennett Pike in the above pictured vehicle.

The suspects, in the above image, could only be described as black males in their late teens or early twenties, wearing all dark clothing, with a covering concealing their faces.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to contact Detective B. Harris at Troop 2 by calling 302-365-8410.
